For the internet service

I declare that I have read the regulations relating to the library internet service and sections a) and b) of paragraph 1, art. 1 of the DMI of 16 August 2005

DM of 16 August 2005 – Measures for the precautionary acquisition of personal data for persons using public unsupervised workstations for computerised communications, namely internet access points, using wireless technology, according to article 7, paragraph 4, of the D.L. of 27 July 2005, no. 144, converted, with amendments, by the law of 31 July 2005, no. 155. Published in the Official Journal of 17 August 2005, no. 190.

Art. 1, paragraph 1, section a) adoption of the necessary physical or technological measures to prevent access to terminals by persons who have not previously been identified as stated in paragraph b);

b) to identify those accessing telephonic and computerised services, before access to such services or offering access credentials, noting the personal data given on an identity document and the type, number and copy of the document presented by the user.

and in particular I undertake:

1. to complete and sign the relevant library register documenting the date, time and workstation used for each session.
2. not to modify the data present on the Internet and not to modify, remove or damage the software and hardware configurations of the library's computers;
3. to observe existing laws in relation to copyright, fraud and privacy and all other legal provisions;
4. to bear the full charges of any costs or expenses for accessing sites or requesting supplies or services charged for on the web;
5. to use the electronic mail service according to the provisions of art. 1 of the internet service regulations and to take complete responsibility for the content of all messages entered;
6. to recognise that the library is not responsible for the content, quality or validity of any information obtained on the web;
7. to relieve the Management or the authority responsible for the library and the executive officer reporting to them, of all responsibility for any events suffered personally or caused to third parties during or following the use of the internet link through a library workstation;
8. to take full responsibility for any consequences deriving from the use of the internet service in the library;
9. to recognise that failure to respect the regulations will lead to the application of penalties against me.
